

FLAMBOYAN
ARTS FUND
Strengthening the Arts in Puerto Rico

Frequently Asked Questions

THE ARTS FUND

What is The Flamboyant Arts Fund?

Since Hurricane Maria devastated the island on September 20, 2017, countless museums, theaters, arts education programs, music venues and other facilities that house creative initiatives have closed. Organizations, cultural workers, actors, musicians, producers, painters, writers, and artists of all career levels and disciplines are scrambling to continue their work, with scarce resources, options and hope for the future.

Award-winning composer, lyricist, and actor Lin-Manuel Miranda, his family, and Hamilton have partnered with the Flamboyant Foundation to create the Flamboyant Arts Fund. This limited-term fund will be dedicated to supporting institutions, arts groups, and independent artists to ensure that the arts and culture continue to flourish during the rebuilding of Puerto Rico. This initiative will also advocate for public and private funding for the arts to ensure that momentum continues beyond the scope of the fund.

Why is it only a limited time fund?

Since Hurricane Maria devastated the island last year, many artists and arts organizations like museums, theaters, arts education programs, and music venues have ceased operations or are at risk of doing so. The Arts Fund intends to actively operate for 3-5 years with the goal of addressing the urgent needs of Puerto Rico by providing grants to stabilize and strengthen the arts sector. The goal is for artists and arts organizations to leverage funding from the Arts Fund to sustain their programming to carry on work in the short term, as well as, for years to come. Another part of the mission is to also focus on advocacy for government funding and strengthening philanthropic support for the arts in Puerto Rico.

Who is eligible to receive grants from the arts fund?

The Flamboyant Arts Fund is an initiative dedicated to preserving, amplifying, and sustaining the arts in Puerto Rico by offering support to all facets of the arts community including music, theater, visual arts, dance, literature, and youth arts education. The Arts Fund team is currently in the process of determining specific funding eligibility criteria. If you are an independent artist, arts organization, or organization providing youth arts education interested in funding your work, please email artsfund@flamboyantfoundation.org to receive updates and more information.

What organizations and projects have received grants so far?

Initial Grantees of the Flamboyant Arts Fund are: Andanza Dance School & Company, arts-in-education organization Create, Museo de Arte de Puerto Rico, Y No Había Luz Theater Company, and Teatro of the University of Puerto Rico. As more grants are announced, they will be listed on our website.

Where can I donate to the Arts Fund?

FlamboyantArtsFund.org

FLAMBOYANT
ARTS FUND

Strengthening the Arts in Puerto Rico

Frequently Asked Questions

THE SHOW

Where can I buy tickets for Hamilton in Puerto Rico?

TicketPop will sell tickets for Hamilton at Teatro UPR starting in the Fall. Check the hamiltonmusical.com website for updates and the on sale date. Some tickets will also be available at select TicketPop locations in Puerto Rico.

NOTE: The person who made the ticket purchase will be required to show the credit card used to purchase AND a government ID when picking up tickets.

How can I register for the $10 tickets?

Download the Hamilton App on iTunes or your preferred app store. 9,600 tickets will be available for the lottery throughout the run. Check back for details closer to the engagement.

How do I get to the theater?

Teatro UPR is located at the heart of the University of Puerto Rico's main campus in Rio Piedras, Ponce de Leon Avenue, San Juan PR 00931. You can take public transportation or a taxi to the theater.

How do I pick up my tickets?

Tickets should be picked up in person on the date of the show at Teatro UPR in San Juan, Puerto Rico. In order to pick up your tickets, you will need to present:

The debit or credit card used to buy the tickets

AND

A valid government-issued picture ID

NOTE: Tickets will only be handed to the owner of the credit or debit card used to buy the tickets. Tickets will not be handed over if the names on the ID and the debit/credit card do not match the name on the order or if the ID is not of the person who is picking up the tickets. Tickets cannot be picked up by a third party. Tickets can ONLY be picked up the day of the show.